

None of the above

Is it OK not to vote? Why or why not? If you think it is, explain under what circumstances you think it's okay.

-	nd: Throughout America's history, certain groups have faced tremendous obstacle to vote. Almost half of eligible voters did not vote in the 2016 general election.
What is the risk when people who may have a stake in issues, such as education, healthcar immigration, minimum wage, the environment, or policing, choose not to cast a vote?
(1)

done about those barriers? (Use the back of this page to write.)